

HAPPY "100" MR. TOM

Mr. Thomas Jefferson Kingston celebrated the "century mark" in birthdays on April 1, 2017, when a party hosted by family and friends honored him at the Oakridge Baptist Church in Marietta. Upwards of 135 friends and relatives joined him in his day of celebration. There was also a letter of congratulations presented to the honoree from the Governor of the State of Texas Greg Abbott. At times, it was almost overwhelming for him. The family would like to thank all who attended and for all the food that was provided for the special event. He offered thanks and appreciation for the many birthday cards and a special thanks to Bro. Chas Carlisle and then ladies of the Marietta community for hosting the event.

Celebrating the 100th birthday of Mr. Tom Kingston was a gala affair that was hosted on Saturday, April 1, at the Oakridge Baptist Church at Marietta and attended by many friends and relatives. Family members, posing for a photo at the top left, were Roger and Bonnie Kingston, Carl Kingston, the honoree, Jimmie Kingston and Janie Kingston. The photo above includes Roger Kingston, Mr. Tom, Carl Kingston and Jimmie Kingston. Posing with the honoree in the photo below, are Jeron and Jesse Kingston Brown, Hannah Kingston, and Leigh Ann and Ken Kingston.
