

PREPARING THE CHRISTMAS MEAL

In you are in charge of doing the cooking for a family or a group of friends for the Christmas holidays ... you had better get started because Christmas is on Tuesday of next week.

In an effort to help the Christmas cooks prepare their holiday meal, kindergarten students at Pewitt Elementary School have submitted their favorite recipes for publication.

You can find a recipe for almost any tasty dish you are wanting to prepare for the holiday table to feed a large crowd or just for a small gathering.

EGGS
Naomi Hill
1st you get a bowl. Then you get some eggs. Crack 'em and then you get a spoon and mix 'em. You can put pepper and salt. Put it in a pan. Then you get a spatula. Hold the spatula and scrap the pan like this. You can put em with bacon or sausage and that's all.

RAMEN NOODLES
Trinity Mullins
Get the noodles out of the bag. Then you get a bowl. Pour the Ramen Noodles into the bowl. Then we get some water into the oven. I mean into the microwave. 2 minutes. Then we take it out. And then we get a spoon and then we eat it. Forgot to put the seasoning in then you eat it. It has different flavors. They taste different.
